Note from Nikki

What a week of compliments and thanks this week has been! Yesterday we hosted a training session for 10 Birmingham schools in our staffroom. All our visitors were completely wowed by our building, facilities and most importantly by the children and their books. What a thrill it was to be able to show our work to other teachers. The children's behaviour was also a hot topic of conversation as the atmosphere in school was so calm and purposeful. On Wednesday 45 children from Yr5 and 6 were lucky to be taken to see Matilda at the Cambridge Theatre in London's West End. Again, their behaviour was excellent. Thank you very much to Mrs Birch, Miss Clissold, Mr Gibson and Miss West for taking them. We are also very grateful to Mrs Ablitt, one of our Governors, for supporting the trip too. The highlight of the week was a complete surprise though! An extremely generous donation has been given to the school from Mr Allen whose wife, Elizabeth began her teaching career at Moseley in 1969. Mr Allen has also donated lots of Medieval Coventry colouring books to the school. We are very much hoping that Mr Allen will come back to visit us soon to meet some of the children.

Message from Albany Theatre – Over the last two weeks, the Arts Insight Theatre Company have worked with children across KS2 to introduce a new play that is coming to the Albany Theatre. They were very impressed by our pupils and are offering children the opportunity to audition for a part in the production.

If your child enjoyed the Masters of the Verse workshop and would be interested in knowing more about the auditions at the Albany Theatre, please email: laura.berridge@arts-insight.com

Auditions are starting from the 19th till the 27th of April 2025.
