

Note from Nikki

What a week it's been at Moseley! Our children continue to amaze us with their enthusiasm, teamwork, and love of learning. Here's a round-up of all the excitement...

Year 6 - Evacuation Adventure!

- What an unforgettable experience for our Year 6 pupils!
- Their trip on the steam train to be "evacuated" in World War Two was truly incredible.
- The children threw themselves into the day – gas mask boxes, ration books and all!
- A huge well done to everyone for their enthusiasm and brilliant behaviour. 🙌

The Grenadier Guards Experience

- As if one amazing trip wasn't enough, the very next day Year 6 were invited to see the Grenadier Guards perform at Bablake!
- The band was spectacular, and some of our children even got to try out the instruments! 🎵
- What a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity – and they did Moseley proud. ❤️

Football Fever!

- Our football teams have been in full force this week!
- Both the boys' and girls' teams have played their hearts out, showing great skill, sportsmanship and determination.
- Huge thanks to our sports coaches and to Mr Gibson for organising and supporting the teams – you're all stars! 🌟

School Photos - Monday!

A few friendly reminders:

-  Photo Day is Monday!
-  Please make sure children come in their smartest uniform and happiest smiles.
-  Sibling photographs start at 8:00am sharp – there won't be time later in the day.
-  Only Moseley pupils can have their photos taken (no babies or toddlers this time, sorry!).
